

From Grand Hotel Salerno it's really to reach Amalfi and all the Amalfi Coast easily and in many ways. By car it takes about half an hour to reach there, but to take the beaches of minutes. You can take the coast road and which is the most scenic. The route is full of charm, and using means of your own you can enjoy the beautiful landscapes by stopping at the most beautiful spots.

View from the marina As an alternative to the car, you can take the bus or the ferryboat. Departing from Salerno, Sita offers a regular bus service to Amalfi, and you can make wonderful one-day trips. Besides, Travelmar, Alicost and Coop. Sant'Andrea ferryboats serve the coast. The staff of our Hotel will be glad to give you all the useful information and be your guide, showing you the most beautiful spots.

A WALK ROUND MUSEUMS AND MONUMENTS

Amalfi's Cathedral Amalfi is a place that will leave you breathless from the first sight: sun kissed for centuries. It looks like a beautiful work of art. Ancient Shipyards on the Amalfi Maritime Republic. Diocesan Museum of the Diocese of Amalfi. Walking along the narrow streets, you can see the Saint Andrew's Cathedral in Arab-Norman style, which, with his famous staircase, is a masterpiece of architecture. From the Cathedral you can reach Paradise Cloister, a little gem in which the Diocesan Museum of the Diocese of Amalfi is housed. A pleasure trip in search of Paper Museum culture can't be done without the wonderful Mills Valley where long ago the Paper Museum was founded.

Amalfi and its environs

Atrani After visiting Amalfi it is worth going a quite long way to relax on beaches and enjoy the sea. Going on to Positano, you can visit Conca dei Marini, a nice sea village clung to the rocks whose name comes from the Conca dei Marini. After Conca dei Marini the Furore, a small village famous for its fiord, a wide cleft in the rock. You can choose to admire Scala Amalfi from above, from the way for Ravello, or from the sea. Driving along the main road to Salerno, getting out of Amalfi, there is Atrani, another extremely charming town.