

Together with Amalfi and Positano, Ravello is the jewel of Salerno's district. It is about 30 km far from Salerno.

Ravello – Villa Rufolo By public transport, you have to reach Amalfi first, and then take the Sita bus to Ravello.

So you may buy the Unico Costiera ticket with 24 hours or three days of validity, if you want to spend the day in Ravello.

By car, it takes about 45 minutes to reach Ravello from Salerno.

FAMOUS GUESTS

All the tourists that has been in Ravello at least once in their lives keep a good memory of it: this village is full of history.

For this reason Ravello has been chosen for ages not only as touristic destination but also as place of residence for nobles.

RAVELLO'S MANSIONS: A LOOK ON THE INFINITE

Villa Cimbrone's garden The most part of Ravello's international reputation is due to its wonderful mansions and gardens.

After visiting the Cathedral and its magnificent ambo in Piazza del Vescovado, you can start your tour of the gardens.

Here, on a stage that seems to be hanging from the starry sky on the blue sea, take place the moving comedies.

Then, you can move to Villa Cimbrone, an old residence for nobles with a enchanting panoramic viewpoint.

The only thing you need during this tour is a camera!